A strike is believed to be imminent in the Jefferson and Coal Creek districts. The miners are demanding higher wages and two pay days to the month.

A dispatch from Middleboro says that a democratic newspaper will be started there soon. One is badly needed, as there are only two in the 11th district.

Somerset will have a fair four days, beginning Sept. 4th. Capt. H. G. Trimble is president; Ben V. Smith, secretary, and J. E. Claunch one of the directors. The program says it will not be in the interest of fast horsemen, who go for big purses, but for the promotion of the farmer and stock grower's interest in general and especially of the mountain counties.

MATRIMONIAL.

W. E. Bell and Miss Beattie McKinnis, popular young people of Corbin, were married last week.

In view of the fact that there are going to be a great many homeless old roosters this fall and winter, J. A. Harmond is building a poultry house of sufficient size to take care of a large number of the aged and broken down.

We are glad to note that B. W. Givens is on foot again. Will and Jack Rankin are up from Wayne county with a bunch of sheep. Mrs. James Gover, of Wayne county, is visiting her brother, T. G. Rankin. J. B. Hughes is over from Cincinnati looking after his wheat crop on the John W. Bright farm. James Griffin and wife are over from Lexington visiting relatives for a few days. Wm. Rankin. Mrs. G. A. Swinburn is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. R. L. White.

The gypsies of this country held a three days' convention in St. Joseph, Mo., said to have been the first "National" convention ever held by them in the United States. There was a lively struggle in the election of chief. The balloting lasted all one day, and Gene Fernando, of Indiana, was elected by a two thirds vote over Gale Marcine, of Kentucky.

A cyclone struck the town of Liano, Texas, Sunday, destroying a hotel, a freight depot and several houses. Several persons received injuries. Northern Texas was deluged by a downpour of rain, and at Dallas the streets were flooded and many basements filled with water.

Rev. M. N. Early, aged 73, a prominent Methodist minister, died near Corbin. He had been a preacher of the Gospel for 45 years.

Rev. E. P. Crowe, of the Southern Methodist church, located at Owensboro, got on a spree at Evansville and painted the town red.

A total abstinence resolution was adopted at Friday's session of the Universalist Young People's Union in Atlanta after a sharp discussion.

The missionaries in China ask a special prayer from every pulpit for the guidance of the government and the speedy success of Americans and native converts in extreme peril.

William Jennings Bryan is an elder in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, his father was a Baptist deacon. President William McKinley was a steward in the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Stevenson is a Presbyterian and Mr. Roosevelt an Episcopalian.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The republicans met here Saturday afternoon and were called to order by county chairman, G. M. Davidson, who explained the object of the meeting. He was retained as chairman and J. A. Chapman made secretary. Judge W. E. Varman then read the resolutions, which cordially approve and ratify the nomination of McKinley and Roosevelt endorsed with great pleasure and enthusiasm the splendid platform adopted at Philadelphia and credit the overwhelming election of the National ticket.

Complete emancipation from the present political servitude and restoration to political freedom is regarded as the overshadowing issue of the campaign and this can only be accomplished by a repeal of the odious Goebel Election law and the enactment of a law that will guarantee to every voter, rich or poor, to vote unimpeded and have his vote counted as cast. Appeal is made to all liberty-loving people to aid in this end.

Hon. John W. Yerkes is instructed for governor and the following delegates, with all good republicans and independent democrats, who are with us in the fight and may desire to attend the convention, named: Sidney Dugger, B. H. King, P. M. McRoberts, J. A. Chapman, George M. Davidson, Chas. Wheeler, J. L. Johnson, George W. Gentry, Harrison Graham, Joe Reed, Dick Hiffe, C. Minor, James C. King, Randall Cook, Harding Young, J. E. Commins, Ben Bright, Chas. Haines, A. A. McKinnis, Sr., Frank Atkins, Joe Phelps, Craig Jackson, A. A. McKinnis, Jr., Hatcher, A. B. Florence, W. E. Varman, A. C. Garman, J. M. Johnson, A. G. Coffey, W. K. Shugars, R. L. Davidson, John Commins, George H. Ellis, Thomas Ferrell, Jas. Skappe, Dr. W. J. Edmonson, Thomas W. Napier, Joe Hake, John Dye, Jas. Ross, Ed Paul, J. H. Minks and Thos. Terry.

HUBBLE.

George Wood bought camp hogs of Eubanks Bros. at 40c. W. J. White lost a nice mare a few days ago from snake bite.

News comes that Miss Mattie White, who went from here to Colorado a few years ago with her brother, has recently married a Mr. Hudson, of Maine.

In view of the fact that there are going to be a great many homeless old roosters this fall and winter, J. A. Harmond is building a poultry house of sufficient size to take care of a large number of the aged and broken down.

We are glad to note that B. W. Givens is on foot again. Will and Jack Rankin are up from Wayne county with a bunch of sheep. Mrs. James Gover, of Wayne county, is visiting her brother, T. G. Rankin. J. B. Hughes is over from Cincinnati looking after his wheat crop on the John W. Bright farm. James Griffin and wife are over from Lexington visiting relatives for a few days. Wm. Rankin. Mrs. G. A. Swinburn is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. R. L. White.

LONDON.

The democrats are enjoying themselves no little in the expense of the Brown-Wilson campaign over the judgeship of this district. It is really amusing to see how the republicans will talk about each other and tell the mean things the other fellow has done when they get into a family row. Bob Brown and Wilson are republicans and each is calling the other "usurper," while H. C. Eversole was actually elected beyond any doubt, but has been kicked clean out of it.

There are a number of democrats in this Orphan District of Kentucky who would make able representatives in Congress, while Judge Herring seems to be the only man the republicans have at all. Among the democrats mentioned for the nomination is R. M. Jackson, cashier of the First National Bank, of which Judge Herring is president, who, if nominated, would show the present representative that "he is not the only pebble on the beach."

Miss Bertie Hoxie is visiting Miss Victoria Rice in Knox. Blanche, the little daughter of Mrs. Lula Thompson, has gone to West Liberty for a protracted visit to her grand parents. Several young ladies are visiting our town at present and they certainly are well entertained. The latest arrival is Miss Lula Colson, niece of Col. D. G. Colson, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. Starkey. With picnicking in the day and may riding and fox chasing at night, the young folks certainly have a gay time.

If London had such a paper as the INTERIOR JOURNAL the people in this section would get their eyes open. Many read only the Echo, while if we had a paper that advocated the principles of democracy as strongly as the Echo does republicanism, it would make many votes for the democratic party. The editor of the Kentuckian is a democrat and is all right so far as it goes, but his composition, or associate editor, is a republican and therefore the paper is a "half breed." We need a full fledged democratic paper just like the INTERIOR JOURNAL. We want a paper that will not advocate the claims of any republican, no matter how good personally he may be. We are not for men, we are for principles, and the man today in Kentucky or even the nation who runs for an office on the republican ticket endorses association, disregards the constitution of the United States and puts the cause of liberty to shame, and dodges all those questions put to Mr. Yerkes by the INTERIOR JOURNAL because he endorses them, but don't want the honest voters to know it. This is his platform, even though he is a preacher, and should be defeated at the polls.

Ry. agents for leaflet giving full information. An experienced agent will accompany the train to look after the comfort of passengers. If you take this trip you can say you have seen the greatest physical wonder of our earth.

A most atrocious story comes from China from St. Petersburg via Paris. It says the Kinesian minister was thrown into a boiling pot and his bones were thrown to the dogs, while his wife and the Legation attaches met death by torture. The only reliable news is that two more provinces recognize Prince Tuan, and that the allies at Tien Tsin, finding an advance impossible, have, after a council of war, decided to lortly and try to await successful re-enforcement.

AN EPIDEMIC OF DIARRHOEA. Mr. A. Sanders, writing from Cocoa-nut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Drug Store.

LANCASTER.

I understand that Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robinson will go to Martinsville, Ind., this week.

Latimer Wesley has been in Ohio on business. James Griffin, of Lexington, has been here for a few days.

A H. Baslin will soon put in a telephone exchange at Hargin, and connect his entire system with it.

Mr. James Barlow, a well known citizen, aged 70 years died at his home 23 miles from town, Thursday.

The Rich, Walter, Hughes and McRoberts families had an enjoyable picnic in the beautiful woodland of Mr. J. J. Walker Friday.

Sarah Dawson, colored, fell from her horse and her leg was broken. It was amputated by Dr. H. M. Grant assisted by Dr. J. B. Kinnaird.

Mr. Charles Fritchie said when he went West three years ago that he would be back here in 1900 to vote for Bryan and he is here ready to fulfill the promise.

Rev. R. A. Thompson, of Mt. Sterling, preached at the Baptist church Sunday. Eld. A. R. Moore, of Memphis, one of the ablest ministers in the country, will preach at the Christian church Sunday.

At the republican convention Saturday, all good republicans were made delegates to the State convention. The Philadelphia platform and McKinley's administration were endorsed and John W. Yerkes was referred to as the right man to lead in the great fight, the delegates being instructed to vote for him for the nomination for governor.

T. B. Walker raised 4,000 bushels of wheat on 200 acres of land. M. F. Stout was forced to cede one-third of his wheat, some insect having eaten into the twine. Wes Zanne is at home with his new engine at the Lancaster Mills. Ed Minor's Mills will be completed by Sept. 1st. Fred Stone is the latter of a line boy.

Mrs. I. S. Wesley and her children are visiting at Middleboro. Mr. J. A. Wright, of Stanford, has finished work on the Lancaster Flouring Mills. Joe Payne has bought a half interest in the Blue Grass Store. James Dillon is not so well. Miss Sallie Dudderar, of Rowland, is with relatives here. Mrs. H. Kinnaird entertained the little folks Friday evening. Mrs. G. M. Patterson has returned after a pleasant trip of six weeks to Chicago and other cities. She attended the National prohibition convention, in which there were 900 delegates, Kentucky being well represented.

A very large crowd attended the eloquent contest Thursday night and it was a success in every sense. The eight young ladies showed considerable study, training and a marked conception of their pieces. In fact many of the audience insisted that each of them should have a diamond ring. It has already been announced that Miss Clyde McGinnis won the prize. The management is under obligations to the judges, Judge R. G. Williams, of Mt. Vernon, Rev. T. W. Watts, of Nicholasville, and Mr. W. I. Williams, of this city, for performing the difficult task entrusted to them. The music was an attractive feature and the management is also thankful to those who took part, their names having been given in my last letter. Mr. Saulley Hughes promises to have another contest next season.

More Black men than usual attended the precinct conventions on Saturday and they are all democrats. As I said before Hon. James D. Black has many friends here who honestly believe that he is the strongest man who has announced for governor, and that this is no time for courtesies. However, if the Lexington convention thinks it best for the party to nominate another man, Mr. Black has expressed a willingness to step aside and do all he can for the man nominated. I believe that this county will instruct for him today.

Monday, though all the delegates are not in town at this writing. The court-house, East Park and East Lexington have instructed for him, making 10 votes, and one more will give him the county delegation. Several more are expected to come who are favorable to instructing for him. The delegates from the city precincts to county convention are: R. H. Tomlinson, J. T. Hays, H. T. Logan, Tom Wherritt, G. T. Farris, W. B. Mason, J. E. Robinson, G. B. Swinebroad and M. D. Hughes, seven of whom are instructed to favor instructions for Black.

Half rates to Atlanta and return via the Southern Railway in connection with the Queen & Crescent Route. Double daily through trains, July 11 and 17, account Atlanta Battle Field Reunion. Tickets good to return until July 23d.

July 21 and 25 account Southern Epworth League meeting. Tickets good to return until Aug. 1st.

C. & O. EXCURSION TO ATLANTIC CITY.—On Thursday, August 16, the Chesapeake & Ohio will run an excursion to Atlantic City. Tickets $14 for round trip, good going on either morning or night train. Write for particulars. G. W. Barney, P. P. A.

POLITICAL.

W. C. Owens was struck by an electric car at Georgetown and considerably hurt.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan is receiving an average of 500 personal letters per day.

A life size statue of the late U. S. Senator Z. B. Vance will be unveiled at Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 22.

Berry Brown, having been elected secretary of the republican campaign committee, will resign his job as first assistant postmaster general.

Buffalo Bill says he will break over and vote the republican ticket this year, doubtless mad because he was not nominated for vice president.

The traveling men have an anti-trust league numbering 30,000 men. Many of them, who marched for McKinley in 1896, are walking the streets now.

Ex-Congressman DeWitt Warner, of New York, who was one of the organizers of the gold democrats in 1896, has declared himself for Bryan and Stevenson.

Judge Redwine might get some valuable pointers in regard to running a convention from some of our Owen county parliamentarians—Owenton Herald.

Dr. Cassidy, of patent medicine land, has taken the stump against Gov. Beckham. The governor pardoned Cassidy's brother's slayer and he told an I. J. reporter in Louisville that he had it in for Beckham.

Smith Trimble announces that he is willing for the Democratic State Central Committee to settle the wrangle in the 7th district. He suggests that it be settled by a primary in Owen county and says he is willing to pay the expenses of such a primary if necessary.

Imperialism, which is the strongest issue before the people, is made the paramount issue of the campaign, and on that point every democrat can give Mr. Bryan his most cordial support.

The democrats are in a majority in the United States, and with all of them in line for Bryan his triumphal election in November will surely follow.

Hon. James B. McCreary is looming up as a very formidable candidate for the nomination for governor in case Beckham is out of the running. We believe that the ex-governor would make a very acceptable candidate. He is both a gentleman and a politician, quite a rare combination in these days.—Elkton News.

There is neither respect nor excuse for a "National Democratic" ticket whose sole and avowed purpose is to "do the republicans some good." To that sort of "democrat" we commend the, by comparison, altogether commendable conduct of one Josias Icarion, who sold out to the enemy for many times what he was worth, and then went out and hanged himself—Louisville Times.

Arthur Goebel says: "The Louisville & Nashville railroad procured the death of William Goebel. It is now trying to save the necks of its hirelings. When William Goebel said on his death-bed: 'I forgive them; they were not the ones,' he meant 'forgiveness' to those poor, ignorant mountaineers. He knew where to rest the blame. His murder shall be avenged."

The suit of Hon. J. H. Wilson vs. Judge W. L. Brown for the title to the judgeship in the London district was argued before Judge Field at Louisville last week and submitted. Brown contends that there was no election to the office last fall and that the printed pasters used by Judge Wilson made the ballots illegal. Judge Wilson asserts that the court can not go behind the certificate which he received from the State board of election commissioners. Judge J. W. Aleorn, in counsel for Brown, says Wilson has no case at all.

PREVENTED A TRAGEDY. Timely information given Mrs. George Lane, of New Strafford, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but could not get any relief. She tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and the cough wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Lane of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 25c and 50c. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
Of Nebraska.
For Vice-President,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
Of Illinois.
For Congress,
GEORGE G. GILBERT,
Of Shelby.

THE Hoosier republicans, who seem to be the lowest order of a generally disreputable gang, continue to honor a fugitive from justice, who, if circumstantial and direct proof go for anything, ought to have long since dangled at the end of a rope. At Camden yesterday Taylor was the guest of honor and delivered a speech on "The Duties of an American Citizen." We have not seen the full text, nor even a synopsis, of his effort, but from the standpoint of his acts it is easy to conjecture its substance. According to his idea the highest duty of an American citizen is to take the law in his own hands, when he finds that the law is against him, and have the plaintiff in the suit foully assassinated, when he sees he is about to win his case. If he preaches otherwise, it will be against his practice and actions speak louder than words. He also doubtless told his audience of out-throats and assassin sympathizers that when they found after breaking the law that they were up against it, to flee for protection to the arms of one who is at heart a criminal and in practice a nullifier of the laws he had sworn to execute, if such a creature could be found other than the one who disgraces the State of Indiana by being its executive. Fugitive Taylor is of all men the proper one to tell a crowd of kindred souls the duties of an American citizen.

THE powerful statement of the case against Caleb Powers by Col. T. C. Campbell reads more like the recital of a crime committed in the dark ages than in the closing year of the 19th century and in enlightened America. One can hardly read it without feeling his blood boil with indignation against the originators of so foul a conspiracy and the perpetrators of so damnable a crime. And yet Col. Campbell stated nothing new, extenuated nothing nor told other than has been told over and over again, of the most heinous crime in history. It cries aloud for atonement. It must be atoned and every one of the foul conspirators hung as high as Haman.

EDITOR ALBRIGHT goes for the London Kestonian in the last issue of the Mt. Vernon Signal. He accuses the editors of the London sheet with publishing a scurrilous article about him and cowardly withholding papers from Mt. Vernon so he would not see it. Then it charges that they refused to publish the resolutions of a democratic meeting and tried to sell out to the L. & N in order to get a pass, which had been withheld. All of which is pretty tough if true, and it is true or Albright wouldn't say so.

COL. CAMPBELL has addressed a sarcastic letter to Gov. Mount in which he tells him how Powers tried to squirm out of being tried at the special term fixed for the trial and how the Commonwealth stood ready and waiting to give the defendant a fair trial. This was in answer to Mount's charge that it was the purpose of the prosecution to postpone the trial and further harass the defendants. Campbell is a past master in the use of sarcasm and as usual makes his victim appear very foolish.

FUGITIVE TAYLOR is on the bump because of an alleged plot to kidnap him and bring him back to Kentucky. The promoter of assassination was in New York Friday guarded by two U. S. officers, and as usual, scared to death. He need not fear kidnapping, however. Democrats will continue to act within the law. Taylor will be brought back in due season and by due process of law and tried for his alleged crime, even if it does result in his being hanged and in the damnation of the republican party.

The Mayfield Mirror, under Editor L. A. Chandler's management, is one of the warmest babies in the democratic household. It doesn't mind its words is speaking of the republican methods of attempted government by assassination nor fail to speak out in meeting on all current questions.

HARDLY one man in a thousand can give his name when told that Iowa's other Senator died suddenly at Washington of heart disease. Everybody has heard of W. B. Allison, but few ever knew of the existence of John H. Gear, the one whose death we are now called upon to mourn.

SEVERAL counties of the 8th district declared for Gov. Bradley for Congress, but Lincoln wasn't among the number. The gray gelding, who bores things, thinks that he is the logical candidate for the office he tried to get from the man who was elected.

EDITOR NEWLON, of the Owenton Herald, has a gold mine. Already he has 38 candidate announcements for November election 1901, and the cry is still they come. Eight want to be jailer and four desire the nomination for representative.

CHARLES FINLEY, whose alleged connection with the assassination of Goebel, was more of a surprise to us than of any who have been indicted for it, as we had from a short acquaintance formed a good opinion of him. says he is coming back to Kentucky to stand his trial. Talk is cheap and Finley has been doing a lot of it, and it is safe to wager that if Finley ever comes back to stand trial for "such an imputation against him" it will be after a democrat is elected governor of Indiana and that State is no longer permitted to be the resort of assassins and other criminal suspects.

COL. BRECKINRIDGE, satisfied that the jury will convict Powers and fix his punishment at death, is already trying to prevent the execution of the verdict by raising all sorts of objections to Judge Cantrell's rulings and suggesting all kinds of quibbles. Though protesting that he does not want to run for Congress, the doctory colonel is working hard to convince the republicans that he is the warmest assassination sympathizer in the box, and thereby secure the nomination from them.

It looks very much like Gov. Beckham has secured enough instructed votes to nominate him on the first ballot. But if he has not and the opposition can combine on Gov. McCroary and nominate him there will be more chance to heal party sores and make assurance of victory doubly sure. Let wisdom and a desire only for the party's good animate the delegates, who will assemble at Lexington and all will be well.

THE Cincinnati Commercial Tribune's picture does violence to the beauty of the man the republicans will nominate for governor. Whatever else may be said of Hon. John W. Yerkes, nobody is rash enough to charge that he is not handsome, or that he does not dress well. In fact he is the glass of fashion and the mould of form or vice versa, and the Cincinnati paper, would show that he is neither.

It is some signs of an awakening to the sense that not a single republican convention Saturday, although 119 were held in the State, made a single reference to Taylor. A fugitive from justice, because he is indicted for being necessary before the fact of the assassination of Gov. Goebel, is not the proper person, they have at last discovered, to canonize.

THE trust put up sugar 10 points again last week, making it now 6 cents to the retailer. There is no earthly excuse for it except that in the fruit canning time sugar is in great demand and the trust is in position to take advantage of it. The republican party makes such extortion possible. Hit it a lick every chance you get.

BRYAN says when you go to the polls remember that you are an American citizen and you will vote against the republican policy of imperialism. If you will at the same time remember how they killed poor Goebel you will vote for the democratic nominee to succeed him if you have a spark of feeling or a remnant of manhood.

BECKHAM'S BIG LEAD.

WILL LIKELY BE NOMINATED FIRST BALLOT.

GOV. BECKHAM's friends confidently assert that he will be nominated on the first ballot and it looks at this writing that they are not asserting in vain. We had hoped that Black or McCroary might be nominated, but we are for the nominee no matter who he is and will, as we always do, give him our cordial support.

FRANKFORT, July 16.—The additional counties of Bourbon, Owen, Gallatin and Callaway instructed for Beckham this afternoon.

The counties reported are as follows: For Beckham—Muhlenberg, Caldwell, Ohio, Union, Todd, Nelson, Graves, Greenup, Lee, Pendleton, Fayette, Shelby, Hopkins, Marshall, Boyd, Bath, Lenoir, Harrison, Warren, Hardin, Monroe, Breckinridge, Henderson, Boone, Nicholas, Jessamine, Mason, Lyon, Ballard, Franklin.

For Black—Wayne, Marion, Whitley, Clark, Anderson, Knox, Washington, Taylor, Rockcastle, Bell, Grayson, Garrard, Pulaski, Laurel, Lincoln.

For Lewis—Green, Woodford, Simpson, Metcalf, Barren, Adair, Russell, Logan, Allen.

For McCroary—Lawrence, Boyle and second instructions in a number of counties.

For Smith—Madison.

Tarvin got only a contested delegation in one county, his own, Kenton. Sentiment and sympathy, among unadvised and unthinking people, have worked much to Beckham's favor in other sections of the State, and it is not improbable that he may be nominated. Should this be the decree of the Lexington convention, we will make the best of it. But it is not too late for wiser counsels to prevail.—Owensboro Messenger.

MCHELDON LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

LOUISVILLE, July 16.—Judge Evans decides the McChord railroad acts unconstitutional and grants an injunction against its enforcement.

Fire nearly wiped the mining town of Prescott, Ariz., off the face of the earth, sweeping clean four and a half blocks of business houses, causing a loss of over $1,000,000, one life, possibly others, and injured a dozen more.

Herman Trust and Edward Rhorer, two young men of Lexington, were drowned while bathing in Kentucky river at the mouth of Elk Lick.

A freight train on the Q. & C. was derailed by a cow at Greendale and several persons injured, none very seriously. 15 cars were demolished.

POWERS' TRIAL.

GEORGETOWN, July 16.—Telegrams showing how Caleb Powers had organized the army of mountain braves to swoop down on Frankfort were admitted as evidence. Col. Jack Chinn graphically described how Goebel was shot. He also testified that the republican militia was on the scene within 10 minutes after the shooting. New and important evidence will disprove Jim Howard's claim that he was not in Frankfort when Goebel was killed, and the other will produce a letter from Caleb Powers telling him how much trouble he had in stifling Taylor's backbone for the venture.

The jury in the Powers case was obtained Friday morning, and after a powerful statement of the case by Col. T. Campbell, the examination of witnesses began. D. Meade Woodson, a civil engineer of Frankfort, was the first. He made a survey of the capitol grounds and had prepared a diagram, which was submitted in evidence, showing to a mathematical certainty that the assassin fired from the office of the secretary of State.

Saturday the Commonwealth sought to show by expert testimony that Goebel was shut from the front and from a window in Powers' office. The clothing worn by the victim at the time was also introduced in evidence. Mrs. W. B. Anderson, manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Barbourville, was introduced to identify some 150 telegrams sent by Powers. The defense objected to the filing of these dispatches as evidence, and Judge Cantrell took the matter under advisement until yesterday.

Sensational testimony is expected to be brought out this week. Among the important witnesses who are expected to testify are Culton, Golden, Finley, Anderson and Robert Noaks. Culton and Golden have already given testimony at preliminary hearings, but it is said they have not told all they know.

The assassination papers are making great ado over the alleged fact that 10 of the Powers jury are "Goebel" democrats, while only one is a republican and the other a prohibitionist.

According to rumors current at Frankfort, Robert Noaks, when he takes the witness stand in the Goebel murder trial, will tell of a plot among the mountaineers to kill the Frankfort police force. Noaks, it is said, will implicate W. H. Culton as the prime mover in this plot and will testify that W. S. Taylor told him to obey Culton's orders.

Capt. J. A. Nash has sold his crop of wheat, 2,300 bushels, to S. P. Kerr at 72 cents. This crop was made on 65 acres of ground yielding an average of nearly 35 bushels to the acre—the largest yield we have heard of this season.—Winchester Sun.

DANVILLE COURT.—There were 17 cattle, by actual count, on the Danville market yesterday and there were many more than that number of people in town. Eight heifers were sold by I. F. Shelby to D. C. Allen at 3.62 and a few butcher cattle brought 3 to 3c.

Owing to the scarcity of cattle, the price of beef in the local market has been advanced 3 cents over that of July of last year. The last advance of half a cent went into effect Saturday. Unless large shipments of cattle reach Louisville within the next week a still greater rise is to be expected.—Courier Journal.

Mrs. Shelby Tevis had 75 half grown turkeys killed a few nights ago by a bound dog. Competent judges estimate the wheat crop in Boyle county at 500,000 bushels. The average will be about 25 bushels to the acre. The farmers have been blessed with splendid weather for harvesting and are rapidly marketing their crops. The wheat is of excellent quality.—Advocate.

Desirable Farm At Private Sale.

Desiring to change climate on account of my health, I will sell at private sale my farm of 250 acres in West Lincoln County, Kentucky 2 1/2 miles East of Hustonville, and 1 1/2 miles West of McKinney on O. & N. R.

This farm and improvements are among the best in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky. The dwelling is a modern brick and frame, metal roof, containing 9 rooms with bath, porch and veranda. Outbuildings include two splendid and commodious barns with 24 box stalls and shed room for 100 cattle or 200 sheep. Other buildings include ice-house, luggy house, meat house, man house, poultry house, flower pit and good tenant house of five rooms. All buildings are in first-class repair and comparatively new. Never failing orchard of best variety of fruit. The larger portion of this farm is first-class tobacco and hemp land. Abundance of never failing water, four rock walled ponds, in addition to branch through one side of the place. 200 acres of farm in blue grass or meadow, with 50 acres in wheat and corn; fencing in excellent condition and abundance to quantity.

This farm is in good shape for division, if so desired, as it lays almost in a square, bounded on North and East sides by Hustonville and McKinney Turnpike. This home and farm has to be seen to be appreciated. Any one wishing to secure a very desirable place will rarely meet with an opportunity to find this quality on the market. Terms liberal. Any person desiring to inspect the premises are invited to call on or address me at Hustonville, Ky.

THE meeting of the South Eastern Kentucky Medical Association at Crab Orchard Springs Friday was both a profitable and pleasant one. Some 35 doctors were present, representing a dozen or more counties and an extensive program was carried out. Stanford's M. D's were there in full force.
THE mails are out of joint. J. A. McRoberts at Lebanon Junction says he never gets the INTERIOR JOURNAL the same day it is printed, though promptly mailed on 24 of the days of issue, and often not for several days. Patrons on the C. S., South and North of McKinney, ought to get their papers within a few hours after they are printed, but don't half the time. A letter mailed at Hustonville on the 11th, got to Danville on the 12th and reached here via the McKinney mail at 6 P. M. on the 13th, and yet Hustonville is but six miles from here. The mail men must get a move on themselves or move out.
IN his speech before the democratic convention yesterday, Col. Welch aptly said that the issue in Kentucky is self preservation and the triumph of the law over the murderous tactics of the republicans and their policy of assassination. It overshadows the tariff, 11 to 1 or any other question in Kentucky, and every democrat and other honest men should stand shoulder to shoulder against the party which has deliberately endorsed the outrageous acts of their so-called governor, who not only apparently aided and abetted assassination, but set at defiance all civil law and established martial law in times of profound peace. His remarks were loudly applauded and there were cries of "go on," "go on," when he had concluded.

HAMILTON for good watch work.
CRAB ORCHARD SPRINGS now open.
You will be benefited by a stay at Crab Orchard Springs.
Why go elsewhere when Crab Orchard Springs will do you more good?
CLOTHING and Hat Stock will be closed out at cost for cash. G. H. Farris & Co.
DON'T be deceived. We can furnish you life sized pictures for less than any agent can. Maggie Sacray.
MASHED TO DEATH.—The terribly mutilated body of James Graves was found on the C. S. railroad track yesterday morning, where it passes thro' the farm of Col. Hall Anderson. It is supposed that he sat down on the track, fell asleep and was killed by the fast train North about 4 o'clock. A coroner's jury was summoned by Squire Coffey as follows: D. S. Riffe, W. H. Hughes, F. L. Board, James Lamb, J. A. Butler and G. A. Hughes, who returned a verdict in accordance with the circumstances, as there was no witness to the accident. Graves was about 21 and worked for Mrs. Black Givens. He formerly lived in Stanford and died at Judge Alcorn's. His legs were cut off, his arms mangled and his face mashed to a jelly.
EXACTLY.—Ex-State Inspector Lester has filed suit against the Stanford JOURNAL for alleged damages by reason of the publication of an article stating that Lester had sent certain telegrams to Noakes, etc. The item was taken from the dailies, and as soon as Mr. Walton discovered his error, he made hot haste to correct it. The only way in which a country paper can get general news is to pull it from the dailies, which is taken from the most reliable of them. All papers are ready to make amends for any injustice they do, and when an error is corrected it seems that this ought to settle it. A newspaper man hasn't the cash to employ a Pinkerton detective to run down every item he gets. He has to shoot in the dark frequently, and the wonder is that more errors do not occur.—Louis Landram in Lancaster Record.
THE health-giving waters at grand old Crab Orchard Springs are drawing a good crowd to that delightful summer resort and Manager Gus J. Hoffmann thinks by Aug. 1 the largest gathering in years will be there. While it is not the intention of Manager Hoffmann to have hope, an occasional dance will be enjoyed as was the one of Friday night. He is negotiating for a band. Mr. A. Addams and family, of Lebanon, and J. W. James and wife have taken rooms there for the summer. Capt. William Henry and wife, who is Mrs. Josephine K. Henry, of Versailles, Foster Ray and wife, of Lebanon, G. C. Webster and daughter, Miss Nellie Webster, of Indianapolis, are some of the congenial guests who are there for the season. A party of young ladies is booked to come this week and the beaux of Stanford and adjoining towns are hereby notified of the fact.
INSTRUCTED FOR BLACK.
DID ALL BUT ONE OF THE PRECINCTS.
The democrats did not turn out very largely Saturday, but those who did were very enthusiastic for the Hon. James D. Black for governor, who received instructions from the following precincts:
At the court house, R. L. Hubble called the convention to order. John C. Robinson was made chairman and J. M. Alverson secretary. Delegates were appointed as follows: T. P. Hill, Patterson Underwood, A. G. T. Smith and T. C. Bankin.

COUNTY CONVENTION
INSTRUCTS FOR BLACK AND ADOPTS RINGING RESOLUTIONS.
On behalf of the county chairman, John W. Holmes, Hon. R. C. Warren called the convention to order and suggested Hon. M. F. North for chairman. He was elected and on further motion W. P. Walton was selected as secretary. The chair ordered a call of the precincts, which showed nearly every delegate named present. On motion the chair appointed the following committee on resolutions: R. C. Warren, J. W. Givens, Jesse Carter, Sam'l. Reid, W. L. McCarty, M. G. Reynolds and W. D. Wallin, who retired and while they were absent, calls were made on Mr. J. S. Hocker, who briefly responded, and Col. W. G. Welch, who spoke at greater length and thoroughly enthused the audience by his sledge hammer blows at republican methods and their attempt at government by assassination.
When Col. Welch had concluded, Mr. Warren reported the resolutions as follows:
RESOLVED by the democracy of Lincoln county in convention assembled: 1. We fervently and without reservation approve the magnificent platform of American principles recently declared by the National democratic convention at Kansas City, and not less do we approve the nominations there made for the great offices of president and vice president of these United States. Platform and ticket are each worthy of the other, and together should constitute a relentless appeal to the conscience and sober judgment of the nation.
2. We declare, however, that the paramount issue to Kentuckians at the approaching election is in our deliberate judgment, a local one. It is single and fundamental. It is whether the law, the sovereign will of the people expressed through their legislature according to the ancient and orderly usage of English speaking people, is to be our rule of action, the measure of our rights and the remedy for our wrongs, or whether murder—murder from ambush, is to grow into precedent, take the place of court and jury and become the accepted arbiter of all disputes and whether ours is to be in the future a governmental by guns—the guns of the militiaman and the gun of the private assassin. All else is naught until this supreme question is answered by the law-loving to the lawless, by the democracy to organized ruffianism under whatever political banner and upon this we are ready to put ourselves upon the country.
3. Time and trial of our present election law has shown it to be defective and unacceptable to the people of our State. It is the chief mission and highest duty of democracy to remedy laws that bear unequally on any part of the people. We earnestly recommend therefore, that the democratic Legislature be reassembled as soon as practicable to the end that an election law so amended that it shall be so just that a way faring man, though hiding in the bush with his rifle, may be forced to see it and unable to lie about it.
4. We appoint as delegates to the convention called to meet at Lexington the 19th, the following named gentlemen: Lewis G. Gooch, John S. Owale, Sr., J. M. Carter, S. M. Owens, J. H. McAlister, J. D. Swope, M. F. North, W. A. Coffey, Jesse D. Hocker, Forth Sautley, Wm. Landgraf, J. F. Holdam, W. L. McCarty, Andrew Thompson, R. C. Warren and W. G. Welch, and in the selection of a nominee we instruct them to cast the entire vote of Lincoln county for Hon. James D. Black, of Knox, and to use every legitimate and honorable effort to effect his nomination.
5. Upon all questions coming before the convention the Lincoln county delegation shall vote as a unit.
The resolutions were unanimously adopted and after listening to a speech from Mr. Warren, who heartily favors a fair and just amendment of the election law, and is strongly for Black, the convention adjourned.
M. F. NORTH, chm'n.
W. P. WALTON, sec'y.
A DISTURBANCE on the street about the time of the democratic and republican conventions here Saturday drew a larger crowd than either of them. Jim Tall was raising a row in his household and an attempt was made to arrest him, when he drew a knife. Marshal Newland called J. B. Mershon to assist him and both armed with axe handles stood aloof, while Will Lovelace and a sister of Tall, wrestled with the frate Negro and kept him from using the weapon. Lovelace finally got the best of Tall and the obstreperous fellow was landed in jail.
When Tall was taken before Judge Carson yesterday to answer for wife beating, the woman swore that "he was just playing" and that charge was dismissed. For creating a disturbance, however, he caught it for $10 and costs.
NEWS comes from Casey that Sheriff James Brown has thrown up his office. He got tangled up in his accounts, it is said, and the trust company which was carrying him refused to do so longer and a Mr. Combest was appointed in his stead. Mr. Brown is a clever gentleman and his friends are glad to know that there is nothing criminally wrong.
LIBERTY FAIR.—Messrs. Dink Wilkison and F. P. Combest told an I. J. reporter at Danville yesterday that Liberty would hold a fair between Sept. 1 and 15 and that those interested will meet next Monday, 23rd, to decide on the exact date. This will be good news to the many who think there is no fair like that held at Liberty.
